SHOWCASING SOUTH AUSTRALIA'S FINEST.

Adelaide Oval is unquestionably the spiritual home of South Australian sport. For generations fans have gathered here in the shadow of St Peter's Cathedral to worship their sporting heroes.

Not far away in Eden Valley, another iconic landmark stands over a spiritual home of a different sort, with Gnadenberg Church overlooking the earth that grows the blessed fruit for Hill of Grace. It is here where six generations of the Henschke family have tended to the vineyard and made one of the finest wines in the world.

This restaurant gains its name from the historical single-vineyard shiraz, Hill of Grace, produced from ancestor vines planted in the 1860s. They lie opposite the charming, old Lutheran church; Gnadenberg translating to Hill of Grace, and have a strong tie to the pioneering history of South Australia. The vineyard has been maintained by the Henschke family for more than 125 years, and has gained international attention for the complexity and depth of the wine produced from this special site. Hill of Grace proudly retains the vision that led to its creation: a beautiful, artisanal expression of a single vineyard, a season, and a winemaking family.

Today, it is fifth-generation Stephen Henschke and his wife Prue at the helm, now ably assisted by sixth-generation Johann, Justine and Andreas passionately upholding the family name and reputation. The highly regarded team has won a multitude of awards that recognise the complementary nature of their roles, Stephen as winemaker and Prue as viticulturist. One of the most notable things about the couple is their ability to keep devotees fascinated. Prue's meticulous, innovative viticultural management has seen not only new life breathed into the venerable vines, but also organic and biodynamic practices and native plants brought into the vineyards and gardens for a complete integration of vineyard and winery.

The Hill of Grace Restaurant wine list celebrates the best of our state's wine producers, acknowledging their toil and perseverance in winemaking and viticulture. A range of acclaimed Henschke wines headlines this extensive list, which provides guests with an insightful taste of South Australia's fine wine regions, from the historic wineries of the Eden and Barossa Valleys, McLaren Vale to the cool-climate vineyards of the Adelaide Hills and exciting new regions like Mount Benson in South Australia's South East.

If it's a celebratory sparkling you're after, we have the best of both Australian sparkling wines, and champagne on offer.

We hope you enjoy selecting something from this wine list to complement your dining experience at the Hill of Grace Restaurant.

'The Henschke family philosophy is to create exceptional wines from outstanding vineyards. Our wines are handcrafted by a dedicated family with a long-standing heritage and a spirit of innovation.'
—Stephen Henschke, winemaker.

'The Henschke environmental focus reflects my belief that we should live within the natural landscape rather than on top of it.'
—Prue Henschke, viticulturist.
